

Tonkin & Taylor

Strengthening Water Resources Assessment and Management Project, Papua New Guinea

Client

Department of Environment and Conservation, Papua New Guinea for the World Meteorological Organisation/UNDP.

Project

Institutional Strengthening in Catchment Management Planning associated with the Strengthening Water Resources Assessment and Management Project, Bureau of Water Resources, Department of Environment and Conservation, Papua New Guinea for the World Meteorological Organisation/UNDP. Responsibilities included hands-on training centred around completion of formal management plans for selected catchments in the Western and Eastern Highlands of PNG.

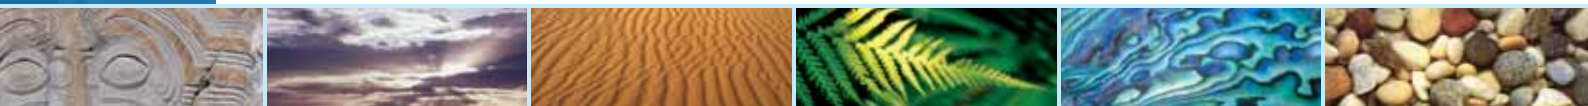

Services provided

- Scoping of catchment management issues
- Training in catchment planning processes
- Assessment and analysis of hydrological data
- Environmental impact assessment- assessment of social issues and traditional land uses

- Assessment of sanitation and water quality issues related to coffee and tea processing
- Setting policies and implementation strategies to achieve management goals
- Training in management plan preparation.

www.tonkin.co.nz

ENVIRONMENTAL AND ENGINEERING CONSULTANTS